

Living a Resurrected Life – Living Water

Read John 4:1-42

1. In what way do you think your story is like the Samaritan woman? Was it the way you encountered God? Was it how you were transformed?
2. “Wells are where God starts something new”
 - a. Take a while to think about your life. What are the wells in your life?
 - b. What new things that God started?
3. “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again,”
 - a. What are things in your life you consume/do?
 - b. What drives you to seek out these things you “consume”?
 - c. What needs are you trying to meet?
 - d. Do these things meet your needs?
 - e. How do you feel after drinking “this water” / consume these things?
4. Jesus offered the Samaritan woman living water – “a gushing spring inside that never runs dry.”
 - a. What do you think this living water is?
 - b. How do you access this living water? What practices did you engage in?
 - c. What experiences do you have of this living water?
5. Have you translated that experience encountering God at the well into a spring of living water? How was that experience like?
6. How do you think you want to continually tap into this living water?
