1. What is domination and liberation to you?
2. Can you give examples of the power of domination and the power of liberation from the Bible?
3. Do you agree that God's power is not of domination but of liberation? Why or why not?
4. How does domination power look like in your life or around you? How does the power of liberation look like?
5. We often have choices – to serve God, or to serve another master (usually ourselves!). Can you think about a time when have you chosen to serve God?
6. What does dying to yourself mean to you?
7. What do you think God is inviting you to see?
8. What do you think God is inviting you to do?
